Dear Dr. Tuazon,

The Philippine Academy of Physicians in School Health, Inc. (PAPSHI), a nationwide association of physicians with special interest in school health, will be holding its 19th Annual National Convention with the theme, "School-Based Mental Health" on May 21 - 22, 2018 at the Century Park Hotel, Malate Manila.

The convention this year aims to update and enrich the knowledge and skills of School Health Personnel on a subject that concerns the Psychosocial Service component of the School Health Program. The specific objectives are as follows:

1. Learn how to assess and manage students suffering from depression.
2. Learn ways on how to manage work-related stress among faculty and school employees.
3. Learn various techniques on counselling for the psychological & social well-being of students.
4. Gain deeper understanding on the Anti-bullying Act (Republic Act No. 10627).
5. Gain essential knowledge on how psychological debriefing is performed.
6. Learn various recommendations from different institutions on how mental health service should be established.

In relation to this, we would like to respectfully invite you and the whole PPS to attend our well-timed Annual Convention. Your presence will be much appreciated as we unite to end mental health problems in the school.
